

VIGOROUS SUPPORT GIVEN CATHOLICS ON THE IRISH PLAYERS

Pledges of Aid Pour In Upon the Aloysius
Truth Society.

Pledges of support in the fight the Aloysius Truth Society has started on the "Irish Players," have been pouring in upon the Rev. S. J. Duarte, vice president of Georgetown University, all of today. The Rev. Duarte is president of the society, and is leading the vigorous crusade against the play, which, it is reported, was "hissed out of Ireland."

Among those reported to have pledged their financial and moral assistance to the Rev. Duarte are: Mr. William T. Russell, rector of St. Patrick's Church; Mr. James F. Meekin, St. Paul's Church; the Rev. Eugene L. McDonnell, St. Aloysius Church; the Rev. Eugene A. Hennan, St. Martin's Church; the Rev. J. H. Meagher, prior, St. Dominic's Church; the Rev. P. J. O'Connell, St. Vincent de Paul's Church; the Rev. Clarence E. Winfield, rector of the Holy Comforter; the Rev. Edward Corbett, Holy Trinity Church; the Rev. Joseph Cassidy, St. Stephen's Church.

Replying to the defense of Lady Gregory, the Rev. Duarte said that as long as the statements of the Irish players had been discredited with reference to Mr. Thomas P. Shahan having invited them to appear before the Catholic University, it stood to reason no credence could be put in any of their statements. With reference to the claims that the play had been approved by a censor for the Catholic Church, the Rev. Duarte said no approval had been given. He said the most favorable report given was that the play could not be stopped on the ground of violation of law.

Numerous Catholic societies yesterday took action upon the Irish players. They adopted resolutions, urging the Catholic people to withhold their patronage. Two of the societies that adopted resolutions were the Ancient Order of Hibernians and St. Martin's Holy Name Society. At the meeting of the Ancient Order of Hibernians seven societies were represented.

The resolutions read:
Resolved by the representatives of the Irish societies of Washington, voting the sentiments of many of our Irish organizations of other American cities, that we hereby express our most emphatic disapproval of the so-called Irish plays which have been running in Washington during the present week, and we call upon all people of Irish blood, who respect the history and traditions of their race, and all fair-minded citizens of this city, to refrain from patronizing such productions."

FEARING BATTLE AMERICANS LEAVE CITY OF NANKING

Fierce Engagement Expected to Occur At Any Hour,
Cables Admiral Murdock.

Rear Admiral Murdock, commanding the American naval forces in Chinese waters, today wired the Navy Department that eleven Americans had fled from Nanking; that the Marine guards maintained there had been withdrawn, and that the expectation is that a fierce battle will occur at any hour between the revolutionists and imperialists.

Fortune for Head Of General Chang, Offer of Rebels

SHANGHAI, Nov. 13.—The rebels took formal possession of Chefoo, today without further resistance from the imperialists.

A reward of $20,000 was offered by the rebels, following a military conference at Soochow, for the head of Gen. Chang Hsun, the imperialist commander at Nanking, who was responsible for the massacre of Chinese following the failure of the revolutionist attempt to capture the city.

It is reported that the rebel force before Nanking has just received the long-delayed supplies of ammunition and renewed their attack, and that the city now is burning.

FUNDS ARE VOTED TO ENTERTAIN BIG CONVENTION HERE

Shown That American Civic Association Advertises Capital.

Because members of the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce believe that the American Civic Association is doing more than the Chamber of Commerce or any other organization to advertise Washington throughout the country, the committee at a meeting this afternoon unanimously passed an appropriation of $200 for the entertainment of the association's national convention, which is to be held in this city next month.

The committee acted upon a recommendation of the convention's committee that such an appropriation be made. H. B. F. Macfarland told the committee that the president of the association is constantly engaged in touring about the attractions of Washington throughout the country and that the association itself is engaged in circulating literature describing the city throughout the country.

The resignation of Joseph Richardson from the board of directors was read and referred to the board. Mr. Richardson has retired from the building business and has taken up residence upon his Virginia farm. Richardson probably will be succeeded upon the board by George Y. Worthington, Jr., who was the second highest in the poll for directors at the annual election.

Special Services In Washington Churches

A number of special services were held in Washington churches yesterday. At the First Congregational Church, Tenth and G streets northwest, the Rev. Samuel H. Woodrow, the pastor, gave a free lecture on "Deborah and Barak," with music by the choir.

D. C. W. Childs addressed the Christian Endeavor Society of the Fifteenth Street Presbyterian Church upon the topic, "A Case Against the Saloons." The musical program included Miss Catherine Davidge, with a mandolin solo, and E. M. Syphax, a piano solo.

"Forgotten Place of the Beautiful in the Spiritual Life" was the subject of a sermon by the Rev. Frank J. Goodwin at Mt. Pleasant Congregational Church. The service was held at the Takoma Park Presbyterian Church, which have been conducted for two weeks by the Rev. E. E. Davidson, of Newington, Mass., were ended last evening.
